Numb. 190.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Saturday, SEPTEMBER 10, to Saturday, SEPTEMBER 17, 1737.

LONDON, May 21.

BY the laſt Letters from Geneva we have an Account of the Death of Mr. John Alphonſus Turretin, Profeſſor in Divinity and Eccleſiaſtical Hiſtory in that Univerſity. This Gentleman's Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion, and the many Learned Works he has publiſhed to the World, will be a laſting honour to his Memory, as well as to that Republick where he was born.

There has been a popular Tumult at Madrid, on Account of the Bakers raiſing the Price of Bread, occaſioned by the Scarcity and Dearneſs of Corn; but it was ſoon quell'd by the Soldiery

From Antigua we are informed, that the Tranquility of that Iſland is perfectly reſtored; that however, the Loſs to the Plantations, for want of Hands to work, and by the Slaves who have been executed, &c. will amount to 20000 l. Sterling, Whitehall, May 21. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order a Conge d'Elire to paſs the great Seal of Great Britain, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Briſtol to elect a Biſhop of that See, the ſame being now vacant by the Tranſlation of the Right Rev. Father in God Thomas late Biſhop there, to the See of Oxford; and alſo to iſſue his Letters under his Majeſty's Royal Sign Manual, therein naming and recommending to the ſaid Dean and Chapter the Rev. Thomas Gooch, Doctor in Divinity, to be by them elected and choſen into the ſaid Biſhoprick of Briſtol.

Sarum, May 22. On Monday laſt the Mob ſtop'd in Downton-ſtreet a Waggon loaded with Malt, belonging to Mr. Samuel Caſe in Salisbury; which was going for Red Bridge; and notwithſtanding all Entreaties, with an Offer of a Hogſhead of Beer, they would not be prevailed on to let it paſs, but threw the Malt out of the Waggon into the Street, which Malt the Mob would have, and at Eighteen-pence per Buſhel.

May 24. They write from Petersburg, that the Baſchir Tartars ſhewing an Inclination to ſhake off the Ruſſian Yoke and join the Tartars of Crimea, the Court had order'd 500 of the moſt mutinous to be put to Death, which was done accordingly. A thouſand more of them are conducted to Coſan, to be executed in like manner. Great numbers are condemned to ſerve the reſt of their Lives aboard the Gallies upon the Wolga. The leſs guilty are ordered to leave their ancient Habitations; and their Wives and Children, being alſo diſperſed and baniſh'd from their Houſes, when the Poſt came away, the Province was pretty much in quiet.

We have one ſurprizing Article by this Mail, viz. that the Pretender's eldeſt Son was ſaluted at Ancona by a Treble Diſcharge of all the Artillery on board the French and Dutch Ships; which is not to be credited, eſpecially as to the latter.

Weſtminſter, June 21.

HIS Majeſty came this Day to the Houſe of Peers and being ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Charles Dalton, Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from his Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to give the Royal Aſſent to ſeveral publick Bills and to Seventeen private Bills. After which his Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Am come to put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, that you may be at Liberty to retire into your ſeveral Countries, and, in your proper Stations, to promote the Peace and Welfare of the Kingdom.

I return you my Thanks for the particular Proofs you have given me of your Affection and Regard to my Perſon and Honour; and hope, the Wiſdom and Juſtice which you have ſhewn upon ſome extraordinary incidents, will prevent all thoughts of the like Attempts for the future. The Conduct of this Parliament has been ſo uniform in all your Deliberations upon publick Affairs that it would be as unjuſt not to acknowledge it, as it is unneceſſary to enumerate the ſeveral Particulars.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

Your Care, as well in raiſing the Supplies neceſſary for the ſervice for the current Year, as in doing it in the Manner the leaſt grievous and burthenſome to my People is a freſh inſtance of your equal concern for the Support of my Government, and for the true Intereſt of your Country.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

You cannot be inſenſible, what juſt Scandal and Offence the Licentiouſneſs of the preſrnt Times under the Colour and Liſguiſe of Liberty, gives to all honeſt and ſober Men, and how abſolutely neceſſary it is to reſtrain this exceſſive abuſe by a due and vigorous Execution of the Laws; Defiance of all Autiority, Contempt of Magiſtracy, and even Reſiſtance of the Laws, are become too General, although equally prejudicial to the Prerogative of the Crown and the Liberties of the People, the Support of the One being inſeparable from the Protection of the Other. I have made the Laws of the Land the conſtant Rule of my Actions; and I do, with Reaſon, expect in Return all that Submiſſion to my Authority and Government, which the ſame Laws have made the Duty, and ſhall always be the Intereſt of my Subjects

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Majeſty's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Majeſty's Royal Will and Pleaſure, that this Parliament be Prorogued to Thurſday the Fourth Day of Auguſt next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly Prorogued to Thurſday the Fourth Day of Auguſt next.
